COUNTY HIRES NEW DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY & HUMAN SERVICES

Hastings County - In a statement released today, Hastings County Warden Rodney Cooney announced the hiring of the County's new Director of Community and Human Services.

"After undertaking a thorough process, I am pleased to announce that Ms. Erin Rivers will be the County's new Director of Community & Human Services," said Cooney. "Erin has been with the County for over 25 years and most recently has been the Employment and Financial Services Manager within the Community & Human Services Department," added Cooney.

Erin will be a wonderful addition to our senior management team and we are all looking forward to working with her more closely", said Jim Pine, CAO for the County.

"Erin was part of the management team that led the recent integration of our entire Community & Human Services Department. I am confident she will continue the important work of ensuring our clients get the assistance and support that they require," added Pine.

Ms. Rivers will be replacing Mr. Steve Gatward who retired in February 2017 after more than 33 years of service with the County.
