The Housing Services Act, 2011, and the Regulations that accompany it, give tenants and applicants of social housing the right to a review of certain decisions made by the Housing Provider. The Act states;

A member of a household may, on behalf of the household, request a review of the following decisions:

2. A determination, under subsection 46 (1), of the size and type of unit that would be permissible if the household received rent-geared-to-income assistance.
3. A determination, under subsection 48 (1), that the household is not included in a category given priority over other categories.
4. A determination, under subsection 50 (1), of the amount of rent payable by the household.
5. A determination, under subsection 52 (1), that the household is no longer eligible for rent-geared-to-income assistance.
6. A determination, under subsection 61 (1), that the household is not eligible for special needs housing.
7. A determination, under subsection 63 (1), that the household is not included in a category given priority over other categories.

8. A determination, under subsection 65 (1), that the household is no longer eligible for special needs housing.

The Service Manager is responsible for reviews taking place. The Service Manager may handle Internal Reviews themselves or delegate that responsibility to Housing Providers or a third party. The Regulations set out the decisions that can be appealed and the rules for appeals.
